Hi Anna

Attached are the talking points for the Minister meeting as an FYI. As we discussed on Monday, I'm happy to do most of the talking. The team is finalising some slides for me to use as well which I can give you this afternoon when you're here (or send through earlier if you prefer). I've attached the briefing again for ease of reference but you've already seen that.

There's a chance either or both of the media pieces will come up, but I have talking points for those (that's the piece about Powerswitch procurement and the piece about Consumer Care Guidelines).

Ngā mihi

Sarah
