Hi Rob

Thanks for this email. Apologies for the delayed response, I was unwell yesterday and have been chasing these up (amongst other things). I have inserted responses to your points in red below.

Tēnā kōrua Luke and Reuben

Thanks for your time on the RMR call with MBIE today, and sorry for the late Friday email. I had three things I wanted to follow up re the RMR and Task Force:

* RMR - Reuben agreed today that you'd talk to John Small about him reviewing the RMR paper, in addition to the ongoing staff level reviews. Our shared view was that he is likely to want to see it, but that his review would be useful for the Authority (but not interpreted by us as a full Commission endorsement or similar). To get maximum value out of the review it likely needs to be in the week of 30 September – ideally on 1 or 2 October. Then he'd get a pretty well developed draft (albeit not Board ready), and we'd still have time to consider his comments and edit accordingly before the final staff sign-off of the paper for the Board. Can you let us know if this timing is possible?

We agree that this is worthwhile doing. Reuben is going to talk to John's today EA about carving this time out in his diary. Of course, the more time John can have with the paper the better, but we will get this in his diary and will work as best we can to get it to the top of his list of things to do next Tues/Weds.

Happy weekend, and thanks for your ongoing support – we appreciate that we are asking you to lean in more on the RMR this month, but that you also have plenty of other priorities.

Ngā mihi

Rob
