Subject: RE: RMR - query for you re Commission review process - please respond

Hey Rob – glad to hear its coming together well.

Very keen to see the Market Power section as early as possible. This weekend would be ace.

John has received the msg that we'll be after him to review material next week. Haven't received confirmation back from him or his EA re:timing, but I would point out that the decision on the foodstuffs merger is due on Tuesday. So whatever way that goes I wouldn't be surprised if he's doing media that day and/or the next morning, so after Wednesday lunchtime might be a good bet.

I hope you both have a good holiday booked sometime soon.

Kia ora Luke and Reuben

We are in the last drafting phase of the RMR paper – still doing a lot of work, but it's coming together.

We are still intending to get a full paper to you next week for your and John's review – is there a specific time booked in John's diary that we should be aiming for? Before then, do you want a slightly early look at the market power chapter over the weekend? I have one more round editing to do, which I can prioritise today/tomorrow morning, and then send it to you if that's useful. Please let me know.
